Our Lady Came to Fatima The Final Apparition October 13, 1917

“Our Lady of Fátima (Portuguese: Nossa Senhora de Fátima, European Portuguese is a title referring to the Virgin Mary, based on apparitions reported to be experienced by three shepherd children at Fátima. The three children were Lúcia Santos and her cousins Jacinta and Francisco.

The apparition is also referred to as Our Lady of the Rosary (a term first used in 1208 for the reputed apparition in the church of Prouille), because the children said the apparition called herself the "Lady of the Rosary". A combination of these titles is also seen, i.e. Our Lady of the Rosary of Fátima (Nossa Senhora do Rosário de Fátima).

My dear Sir Knights.

Our next meeting date will be the installation of officers for our new fraternal year 2015-2016, Oct 25th-2015.

Our new Master Sir Knight Andy Sambrielaz will conduct the installation of officers.

Dress code for officers will be tuxedo and baldric.

I would like to encourage our membership wearing a tuxedo too, if you have one.

We all meet at St Joseph's Church in Armstrong at 3:45, to be able to start at 4:00PM. After the installation of officers we will have our dinner with our ladies, widows and special guests at St Joseph's Parish Hall.

The events at Fátima gained fame due to elements of secrets, prophecy and eschatology, particularly with regard to World War II and possibly more World Wars in the future. Chief among these is also the alleged urgent need for the Consecration of Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The reported apparitions at Fátima were officially declared worthy of belief by the Catholic Church, which commemorates the event on May 13.

NEWSLETTER October 2015

History Location of Fátima, Portugal.

Three Portuguese children, Lucia dos Santos, Jacinta Marto, and Francisco Marto, were young and without much education when they reported the apparition of Our Lady of Fátima in 1917. The local administrator initially jailed the children and threatened that he would boil them one by one in a pot of oil. The children were consoled by the other inmates in the jail, and then led the inmates in praying the Rosary.

With millions of followers and Roman Catholic believers, the reported visions at Fatima gathered widespread respect. After a canonical enquiry, the visions of Fátima were officially declared "worthy of belief" in October 1930 by the Bishop of Leiria-Fátima. Popes Pius XII, John XXIII, Paul VI, John Paul II and Benedict XVI voiced their acceptance of the supernatural origin of the Fátima events. John Paul II credited Our Lady of Fátima with saving his life following an assassination attempt on the Feast of Our Lady of Fátima, 1981. He donated the bullet that wounded him to the Roman Catholic sanctuary at Fátima, Portugal and it was placed in the crown of the Virgin's statue.
