Eucharistic Miracles of the World November 13th and 14th, 2010 at St. James Parish Center

"For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." (John 6: 55-56)

"Does this shock you?"

"What if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life, while the flesh is of no avail. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe." Jesus knew from the beginning the ones who would not believe and the one who would betray him. And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted by my Father..... (John 6:61-69)

Dear Brother Knights

Chaplain
Father
Dale Normandeau

The Second Book of Maccabees relates the incident where Judas Maccabeus "offered atonement for the dead, so that they might be delivered from their sin" (2 Maccabees 12: 45). Scripture reminds us to pray for the dead, as our faith also reminds us, being a spiritual work of mercy.

This month of November begins with two important feasts that remind us that we are bonded with the deceased as well as the living members of our Church. We pray on November 1st, the Solemnity of All Saints, that we will eventually form a perfect communion with them in the Communion of Saints in heaven, and that, through their intercession, they will help us arrive there.

On November 2nd, the Feast of all Souls, we are reminded to pray for the souls in purgatory. These are those who, having died in a state of Grace and are assured of heaven, died in an imperfect state of Grace and are in need of additional purgation, for "nothing impure can enter the presence of God". They are in need of our prayers, so we offer, in charity, our prayers on their behalf. We pray that their state of purgation will end and that they will be welcomed into heaven, their goal and ours.

May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace
God Bless you all,
Fr. Dale Normandeau

Dear Brother Knights

November is the month when we remember our family members and friends that have departed.

Grand Knight
Guenter A. Rieger

On Thursday, November 11th we remember those that have given their lives in defense of their country and the freedom that we enjoy.

On Thursday, November 18th we come together attending the Necrology Mass. The Necrology Mass will be held at the Lady of the Valley Church at 7:00 PM.

We are remembering together with the Knights of Mother Theresa Council 12202 all our departed Brother Knights. During Mass we take the time to individually recall the names of departed Knights.

Please schedule the time to come to this annual celebration of the Necrology Mass.

Congratulation to Sir Knight Pat Hagel. After our past Deputy Grand Knight Brother Brian Lees transferred to Mother Theresa Council 12202, St. James Council 4949 was without a Deputy Grand Knight. During our last Business Meeting Sir Knight Pat Hagel was elected for the position of Deputy Grand Knight. Sir Knight Hagel, a former Grand Knight and a former District Deputy, will be an enrichment to the Executive.

Deputy
Grand Knight

Congratulation Pat, I am confident that we will have a very good fraternal year.

Saint James Church Celebrates the "Reason for the Season"

Each year the Knights of Columbus ,St.James Council 4949, supports the "Keep Christ in Christmas" campaign to remind people that Christmas is above all else a holy day to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. To help deliver the "Keep Christ in Christmas" message, Saint James Council invites the parish community to join together at the First Sunday Mass of Advent, to be held Saturday November 27th 5PM, Saint James Church.

This will be followed by the blessing of the crèche in front of the church and a family pot luck dinner at the Parish Center. Each family should bring a dish that would feed six adults. You can drop off your hot or cold food items at the parish center kitchen after 3:30pm that day. Donation for the FOOD BANK will also be accepted. Questions, contact Kevin or Maureen 250 549-6861.
